

Little Lady (Licence to Rock)

---

Text: Max Conradi, Musik: Hanf im Glück

No one knows what lovin' you is like it's basically alright but now I want you by my side I hate your pride I need you close to me tonight there shall be no more secrets there won't be any lies what do you reckon girl there's no more need to hide Hey little lady touch me never stop you know we've got the licence to rock

Your black and sparkling eyes are such a beautiful sight on a busride overnight in the dim morning light I kiss you 'n' I hold you tight

Just fall asleep your head on my chest you feel safe in my arms I feel your breasts you're so close to me and for many reasons (I hope this time's gonna last ... forever
Hey little lady touch me never stop you

and with your wicked smile in the dim morning light I kiss you 'n' I hold you tight

I'm so tired of you tellin' me maybe 'cause there's no place where this might lead ... to just be aware of what you feel and what you fear and share your smile with me ... I'd do indeed Hey little lady touch me never stop you
know we've got the licence to rock

on a busride overnight in the dim morning light
Your black and sparkling eyes are such a beautiful sight
and with your wicked smile in the dim morning light I kiss you 'n' I hold you tight
